City Administrator Casey stated that he was recusing himself from consideration of the item due to his purchase of a property that is subject to an accessory dwelling unit application.

Mr. Casey was excused at 4:38 p.m.
Assistant City Administrator Pam Antil joined the meeting at 4:38 p.m.

Councilmember Sneddon read the following statement into the record: "I have been advised by the City Attorney that the Council's decision to include a checklist of special requirements in the ADU Ordinance, for ADUs located in the Foothill HFHA, creates a potential conflict of interest for me as a result of my homeownership within that same area. I will be recusing myself on this advice. [Para.] Up until now, I have been able to participate because while I was potentially affected, so too were thousands of other Santa Barbara homeowners who together comprise the 'public generally' under the state conflict of interest laws. Because there are only about 3,600 parcels in the HFHAS, I developed a conflict when the debate focused on those areas specifically. [Para.] I do want to add that it is extremely frustrating and debilitating not to be able to participate in key issues that I really care about, such as safety in the hillside areas. I intend to seek advice through the City Attorney and Fair Political Practices Commission in an effort to confirm that there are a variety of different safety approaches relating to ADUs that I can raise for Council consideration in the near future without creating a conflict of interest, which I plan to do."

Councilmember Sneddon was excused from the meeting as of 4:39 p.m.
